I. Reading:

A. Read the passage carefully, then choose the correct answers: (1.25 p)

Last Thursday I had an important interview for a job. I got up early and dressed carefully. I put on my best jacket and trousers to look my best. I had to travel by train, so I walked to the station which isn't far from my house. I was walking so fast when I saw a man just ahead painting his fence with red paint. He did not notice me as I walked past. Then he turned suddenly and splashed my beautiful trousers! He had acted in a silly way and he apologised, but the damage was done.

Could you imagine how I felt then? I was so angry with that man but I could not do anything and that I was in a hurry to the interview. Fortunately, there was a big store at the corner of the street, so I decided to buy a new pair quickly so that I could change on the train. I rapidly found a nice pair, which I bought quite cheap. The shop was full so I paid hurriedly, grasped my shopping bag and left.

On the train I went to the toilet to change my clothes. I took off my stained trousers and threw out of the window. Then I opened the bag to get my new ones but all I found was a pink woolen sweater!

If you invite an American friend to (1) you to have dinner in a restaurant, phone the restaurant first to find out if you need a reservation to avoid a long wait for a table. To make a reservation, just give your name, (2) number of people in your group, and the time you plan to arrive. When you invite someone to dinner, you should prepare to pay the bill and reach for it when it arrives. (3), if your companion insists on paying his or her share, do not get into argument about it. Some people prefer to pay their own way (4).....they do not feel indebted, and those feelings should be respected. In most American restaurants, the waiter or waitress's tip is not added to the bill. If the service is adequate, it is customary to leave a tip equal (5)..... about 15% of the bill. In expensive restaurants, leave a bit more.
